Client Information:

Patient Information:

Date and time of last meal:

Your pet has not had any vomiting, coughing, or diarrhea lately.

Your pet has not had any seizures, difficulty under anesthesia, or reactions to medications.

If Applicable send any excised tissue sent out for analysis. (Lab costs vary)

If fleas or ticks are found on my pet while here, they will be treated at my expense.

We strongly recommend an in house blood panel prior to surgery/procedures to help detect any internal problems that may not be evident during the physical examination. We require all pets undergoing sedation to have an iv catheter placed in their front leg. We will have to shave the leg and sometimes we use both legs. Please let us know ahead of time if there is any problems with the shaving of your pet. This is required for pets over the age of 7 years and sometimes may be required in younger pets due to symptoms. **Very old or sick pets may require a more extensive workup at an additional fee.

I do want pre sedation blood work for my pet.

I do not want pre sedation blood work for my pet.

**Dental patients** I am aware that All About Pets does not offer dental radiography during dental procedures.

I would like to take conventional pain medication home (cost based on weight).

I would like to take homeopathic pain medication home.
